Walking in Her Shoes; the theme of this year's children's retreat

Over two thousand six hundred Scottish schoolchildren will undertake a day retreat at Schoenstatt this year, with over two thousand in the period of just twelve days in May. Our second half-day retreat from the School of Christian Meditation is on Friday 2nd June and is titled: 'Allowing Christ's Presence to be the Supreme Reality of Our Consciousness.' It begins at 10:30 am and closes at 13:00hrs, with a sandwich luncheon. All beverages are included as are the word processed notes for the retreat. The cost is £12.50 per person and must be pre-booked at Schoenstatt T: 01360 312 718. There is no printed programme of retreats in the first half of the year so keep an eye on

Our sisters have been quite mobile, with travel to Ireland, Germany, Inverness and Hungary included.

Why not come and visit the Shrine?

Our Grounds/Gardens 2017

The gardens have been looking superb since early April and many images taken on the Estate prove the point. Our own images have gone down well with all of you looking in on the Website and on Facebook. The Repository and Coffee Shop have been particularly busy and we are still averaging circa 100 people passing through the Estate on a daily basis.

Schoenstatt Launches a Culinary School in 2017

Schoenstatt Scotland is soft launching its own Culinary School this year. We installed a culinary herb garden that will serve the Centre and its fresh herbs will be used in our cuisine. This began last year and the garden is maturing now. We already produce our own herb salts; rosemary, lavender and French Tarragon, and all our own herb butter. You will gradually be able to see some of our dishes on Facebook and their recipes used at retreats and on residential pilgrimages.

We will also offer cookery courses for priests, monks and religious sisters. Courses will be held at Schoenstatt, but we will also offer external consultancy services.

Photography

Anyone wishing to share their amazing images from Schoenstatt can email them to info@schoenstatt.co.uk, in doing so you allow us to use them on the Website on Facebook and in any other promotional way, but you retain copyright of your images. This has worked well in the past with both professionals and amateur photographers displaying their work at Schoenstatt.

Request for help

Please let us know if you can help: We are looking for an organist who can assist us with a small project, it is quite simple, however, we have been let down on so many occasions with offers of help that lead nowhere.

Other News

There are several wooden benches on the Estate that are not being looked after and are at imminent risk of being removed. This because they are both unsightly and unsafe! You will note that the front entrance to the Estate is now looking considerably better and work is almost complete on the drive. Our sincere thanks to Ted who has laboured on his poor knees to place all of the blocks. We wish you all a wonderful Summer.

Looking Good

We have had a very busy time on Facebook recently and some Lenten Prayers appeared to hit the right note as over ten thousand of you opened them and shared them.

Expect some surprises later in the year on Facebook....
