
Schoenstatt: A Little Gift of Prayer

Schoenstatt Scotland

We are called to imitate Jesus; live as he lived, think as he thought, and be conformed to his image. This is the mark of our sanctification. I will be nothing with you, Lord! I offer you the pride and vanity which have possessed me. Help my will in this resolve. Protect me from occasions of stumbling. Fear overconfidence in your own ideas, and determination in your ways speaking. Be meek and humble of heart, that is to say, your meekness should come from a sincere humility. Bitterness and moderation come only from pride.
