
Schoenstatt: A Little Gift of Prayer

Schoenstatt Scotland

Lord, may I in some small way reflect the faith of Mary as I seek to respond to your call and way. Amen. My experience of life in today's world is one of distraction and fragmentation. To become recollected and centred is one of my greatest challenges. So, hear my cry Lord, even when it has become the faintest whisper. Amen. I must keep in my mind that when I become convinced that all is lost, that very conviction is the clearest evidence that all is gained. I know you have never left me!
